Thank You for consigning with Paying It Forward. Not only will you receive 50% of what your item sells for, you will be supporting local breast cancer charities! We want your experience to be quick and efficient so we need a little help from you. Tell us all about you, our "consignee". Please complete the information below, sign the contract and then list each item with a brief description, the brand name, size and the original price. We will take it from there!

We are a team, you bring your fabulous items in for consignment and we showcase them in the boutique. You can easily track the progress of your sales online www.payingitforward.life
Because items are seasonal, we may need to discount your item.

When your item(s) sell, you get paid! We will have a check waiting for you at the store that you can pick up once a month. Checks will be ready the first Tuesday of each month. If you would prefer to shop and use Store Credit, please check that box at the bottom of the contract.

Our Legal team wants you to read this contract…
Paying it forward (PIF) the consignor will do its best to protect the consignees items while in the store (we have video cameras everywhere and some secret shoppers) but unfortunately, if something does get damaged or stolen, PIF cannot be held responsible. Since your items are one of a kind and may be posted on social media, once they have been consigned, they may not be taken back by the Consignee as they could already be SOLD. If an Accessory does not sell and we are pulling it from the floor, we will notify you via email to come pick up the item within 10 days. Items not picked up after 10 days will be donated. Clothing can stay in the store for up to one year. Items will be discounted related to their season, without notice to the consignee. Clothing will not be given back if it doesn't sell. If any items are still remaining after one year, we will donate. Please check the box below that you have read and understand the terms of this contract. Questions can be directed to Alex at: Alex@payingitforward.life

I understand and agree to the terms of this contract.
